

Spiritual Battles WorldWide Case #1114 January, 7, 2022

Victim: Amy Miller

Mr. Paul Dale Roberts, a very well known paranormal author and investigator of all thing paranormal, reach out to us with a case that fell in his 20% of failing to get rid of the demonic entity or entities. Please see below his initial investigation:

EMERGENCY PARANORMAL INVESTIGATION

Date to be there: December 26, 2021, Sunday. Time to be there: 6pm. Address to be at: 1082 Fairview Drive, Gridley, CA. Contact Person: Amy Brimm Miller. Telephone Number 530 282 0399. Activity: Extreme demonic activity. The demon is telling Amy to kill herself. Deanna and I, will be conducting an investigation, Roman Catholic house blessing, metaphysical cleansing and full submersion baptism.

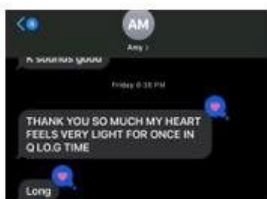

After this, Mr. Roberts passed us along her information. My mother is a Native American Shaman and after reviewing Mr. Roberts reports and evidence, Spiritual Battles Team decided to take the case on. We then contacted the victim, Amy Miller, Via Phone: Amy confided she did try to commit suicide due to the demonic entities and in despair attempted to take her own life. Amy's husband found her overdosed in the floor. Amy is recovering at home with her estranged husband. They are still married however, legally separated. Amy has no mental illness on record. Amy states the only medications she is currently taking diabetes medicine and thyroid medicine may take Valium when needed. Amy Miller has requested for an exorcism to rid her from entities that are oppressing her. She misses her grandchildren and daughter greatly but, fears for their safety until she needs has rid of herself and home of the demons attacking her.

Amy has lost her brother and son in a car crash. Amy has admitted she has dabbled with spirits trying to reach them. She believes herself to be an empath, and is sensitive. Amy is really depressed and is definitely missing her loved ones. Amy stated she reach out to someone that was believed to have been able to help her nourish her gifts and started trying to communicate with the dead. Amy stated she has had bouts of anger in past and has done things she never would, for example, throwing her sons urn in the back yard, and breaking pictures or the mirrors. She wants rid of this negativity in her home. Amy now has come to believe they are not in fact her loved ones and she wants them all gone. She understands her son and brother would not do any of these harmful things. Amy states she is being touched in private places and states it is not wanted; Amy states she sees demonic faces in the carpet, demons in the mirrors or reflecting objects such as the glass on washer in garage; Amy Miller has paralyzing demonic dreams and feels oppressed and wishes to have an exorcism to rid her body from these demonic entities afflicting her.

We arrived on 1-7-22 at approximately 6 p.m. Amy was nice, and very cooperative with bouts of anger towards the gentleman in the home. We introduced ourselves and began to allow Amy to tell her story. Afterwards, we then asked Amy if she would walk us through the home and outside. After assessing the situation carefully, we agreed with Mr. Roberts, and believe that Amy was in need of an exorcism. Conclusion: Amy, without knowing, when trying to reach lost loved ones thus venturing speaking with spirits, had actually opened herself up for possession. The demonic entity has taken advantage of Amy's grief, and vulnerability causing more depression, oppressing her from life and isolating her from all loved ones. Amy seems to have a good support system at home. The home was clean as well. My mother began the blessing of Amy with holy oil and we all prayed, laying hands on hers alongside her husband; afterwards, we cleansed her home again cleansing it from all demonic entities/unclean spirits. The exorcism was performed with success. Amy followed up with a text message (see to the left) that night after we left stating: "thank you so much my heart feels very light for once in a long time". Amy Miller is to date doing well and realizes with faith in God all things are possible. <https://jazmaonline.boards.net/thread/1959/gridley-case> <https://www.facebook.com/millernightowl>

A Haunting in Reno and a Stop at Donner Pass
By Paul Dale Roberts, HPI Ghostwriter

Before I get into my preliminary investigation in Reno, I just want to mention that a UK TV Series called 'A Conversation with a Serial Killer' by Two Four Productions actually came to Sacramento/Ione to film us (HPI) for their documentary. Shannon 'Ms. Macabre' McCabe was the guide through Preston Castle and conducted the seance at Vegas in Old Sacramento. I showed the Two Four Productions crew the actual murder sites of Richard Trenton Chase in Sacramento.

Richard was known as the Vampire of Sacramento. We were originally contacted by Two Four Productions, because they read my Leonard Lake/Charles Eng article, then they found my Richard Trenton Chase article and Shannon's story in regard to Haunted Sacramento. The HPI crew that assisted Shannon and I, along with Two Four Productions were: Holly DeLaughter, Jennifer Baca and Chris Grissom. Shannon showed her appreciation to the production crew, by having a barbecue at her home, this is where they discovered I was the former disco king of Sacramento, when Chris Grissom & Shannon pushed me to show my old school talent to the crew, everyone had a good laugh. We finally ended the third day of filming by feasting at Joe's Crab Shack in Old Sacramento. Shannon and the Two Four Productions crew wanted me to make a fool out of myself one last time, so I danced with the Joe's Crab Shack employees.

May 21, 2008 is a day I will never forget, because it was our last day with Two Four Productions. In just 3 days, we all felt like family and it was a sad departure. Shannon & I, had to go back to reality, to our real jobs. For 3 days we were in the spotlight, but keep an eye on HPI, because we will be making more news soon!

Shannon wrote an exclusive story on Two Four Productions here:

HPI covers a lot of Northern territory with our investigations. We have gone as far north as Covelo and Mount Shasta. We have now covered the Eastern front with Reno, Nevada, with this latest investigation and as far south as San Jose, with the upcoming Winchester House investigation. Of course, we went to Santa Cruz a few times to investigate the Brookdale Lodge. We are now expanding with upcoming investigations to New Orleans to investigate Voodoo, zombies and ghosts, Mexico to investigate the Chupracabra and that some people believe is the murder victim Natalee Holloway.

Aruba to investigate the phantom blonde haired woman ghost seen along the beach. A ghost

This long Memorial Day weekend was pretty exciting. I got a call from a family member to head over to Reno, to take care of some family business. I thought to myself, if I am going to Reno, I remember a Reno paranormal investigator named Debbie Fisher that once contacted me about a haunted private residence. She had found me through my articles. I might as well kill two birds with one stone, so I called Debbie. She said she would make arrangements with the family to have me investigate. I decided to bring my two dogs with me. Pika (Jack Russell Terrier). Pika is a great paranormal investigator and a sensitive.

I also brought along paranormal-investigator-in-training HPI (pronounced Hi-Pee), a Corkie, half Cocker Spaniel & half Yorkshire Terrier. Debbie was bringing her sensitive, paranormal investigating dog, another Jack Russell Terrier named Cindy. So, the team consisted of: Paul Dale Roberts, Debbie Fisher, Pika, HPI & Cindy. What a team!

I meet up with Debbie and Cindy. Debbie briefs me about the family's situation. She tells me the following:

The family consists of a husband and wife and their 2 daughters and 2 sons. The family has witnessed a little girl sitting at the foot of the bed. The girl has been seen several times, sometimes she wears jeans, shorts or overalls. She has brown hair. There is usually a bow in her hair. The little girl seems like an intelligent haunting, because she has waved at one of the daughters and another time she smiled and pointed at the other sister and her friend. She seems to be aware of the family's presence.

Another entity in the home is that of an old lady. She is seen in a nightgown with blue flowers decorated on her nightgown. There is a boy that is seen, that wears overalls and has yellow & blue patches on his overalls.

The last entity is a woman that looks like a hooker, she is known to wear all black, black boots, she has her hair in a pony tail and seems to be seen a lot in the bathroom.

Debbie and I, stopped at Joe Bob's Bar to interview some of the people that live near and around this area, to get some history of the area. There was not enough substantial history to pin point what may have been causing this haunting in this area. We are still working on a historical overview of where this home is situated. We are keeping the home and the family confidential, to protect their privacy.

During the investigation, Pika and Cindy three times started barking frantically at locations of the house, where nothing was seen. Both Pika and Cindy seemed to circle an area where they could see something. HPI was unaware of any unusual disturbances as he seemed content playing with toys around the house. It makes me wonder if Jack Russell Terriers are more 'sensitive' than other dogs. During my investigation, the family, which I will call a high-tech family, because all of the children have their own laptops, the father is very, very knowledgeable about computer software and other computer gadgetry was very warm with his generosity with Debbie and I. The dad of the house made sure Debbie and I, had dinner and cooked up steak, broccoli and a baked potato for us. He also made sure the dogs were well-fed. On Sunday morning, when I was briefing the family the outcome of my investigation, they had pancakes waiting for Debbie and I. I want to thank this family for their munificent, openhanded unsparing generosity!

During the investigation, the children were in the house watching Family Guy, Boogeyman, Are You There Yet? They were also playing video games like Grand Theft Auto and Guitar Hero. So any EVPs that might be captured, I must make note on what possible background noises may have caused the EVP. Like if I hear a kid is saying 'are you there yet?', that may have been from the movie tract. Checking the EVPs during the time the children were still awake, I discovered there was too much background noise. When the family finally went to sleep, I found possible EVPs that sounded like: 'shhhhhhhh' and 'eh..eh..hey!' But, of course again, this could have been voices from one of the family members and I must dismiss my evidence as inconclusive.

During the late night investigation, there was strange noises being made throughout the house. I cannot determine if this might be the settlement of the foundation or perhaps the noises from some of the pets of this home. The family has a pet guinea pig and some pet rats. Sunday morning when I briefed the family, I was told that other disturbances is when the family has heard a baby crying and a voice saying...'it's okay Lindsay.' They have witnessed objects falling off the shelves and barrels. They have seen doors opening, or heard things fall down and they go into the room to clean up the mess and there is no mess. A lot of times, things get moved around a lot in the bathroom according to one child family member. The weirdest incident according to the father of the house, is when a sugar bowl top flew off the sugar bowl and landed in an empty rat cage. Many strange photographs have been taken inside of the home of fast moving orbs and what may look like ectoplasm.

The only way I can properly investigate this home, is if the whole family was not present. I do believe this house may be haunted, but with various family routines that are conducted in the house, that may cause noise interference, I can only give the home an 'inconclusive findings' rating.

The entities of this home seem to be causing the family no duress and the family seems to be used to the haunting and welcomes the entities as if they are part of the family. This is a very loving family that is proud of a daughter that sings so well, she will probably one day become an American Idol contestant. All of the children are artistically gifted and quite technical savvy, something they picked up from their father and mother. I thank this family for inviting me to their warm, but haunted home.

As I drove back and recollected my thoughts, I looked at my dogs who absolutely enjoyed their adventure. For that long ride home, they enjoyed my kind of music such as Sledgehammer by Peter Gabriel, Electric Avenue by Eddy Grant and That Girl is Poison by Bell Biv Devoe. They might as well get used to my music too.

To end this investigation, I took HPI and Pika to parts of Sierra Nevada where the Donner Party met their terrible fate under snowbound weather conditions. In 1847, 87 California bound settlers got caught up in one of the worst storms in the Sierras. 39 settlers died and 48 survived. To survive, the survivors had to resort to cannibalism. While we were there to do a small investigation, it was raining, snowing and at one point of time hail came down. I tried to get some pictures of any residual activity, but with the weather being this bad in May, my pictures were inconclusive. I had some nice orb pictures that I can explain away as real up close snowflakes. It was time to finish our trek home. This was HPI's first ghosthunting adventure. I will let HPI know, there will be more.

INITIAL REPORT:

Date to be there: November 13, 2021 Saturday / Time to be there: 6pm. Address to be at: 1832 Scarborough Drive, Lodi, CA. Contact Person: Marilsa. Case # 2K09M689H53Y78. Activity & History: Elderly couple died in this house. The kids see a monster in the hallway. One of the family members was held down in the bed. They hear a person eating in the closet and no one is there. Kids were screaming and they see something in the hallway. Whistling is heard throughout the house and when Marilsa goes into the kitchen, the whistling stops. Computer chair spins on its own.

As I head to Lodi once again, I put in Creedence Clearwater Revival and listen to these lyrics: "Just about a year ago, I set out on the road, Seekin' my fame and fortune, Lookin' for a pot of gold, Things got bad and things got worse, I guess you will know the tune, Oh Lord, stuck in Lodi again, Rode in on the Greyhound, I'll be walkin' out if I go, I was just passin' through, Must be seven months or more, Ran out of time and money, Looks like they took my friends, Oh Lord, I'm stuck in Lodi again"

Lodi sure has a lot of paranormal activity and it goes back to 1896, when Colonel H.G. Shaw and his companion, a young man named Camille Spooner, were leaving Lodi for the Fresno Citrus Fair when they came upon three extraterrestrial visitors near the Woodbridge canal. These beings were 7 feet tall and very slender with small hands, their fingers were without nails, and feet that were twice as long as normal and functioned similar to a monkey's foot, according to the description that the Colonel relayed to the public. The Colonel also claimed that these aliens were trying to abduct him and his friend, but were unsuccessful. I have investigated UFO reported activity in Lodi and in Galt. I also investigated many alleged hauntings and tonight is another haunting.

HPI PARANORMAL INVESTIGATORS ROLL CALL:

Paul Dale Roberts - HPI Co-Owner; Deanna Jaxine Stinson aka Wish - Psychic Medium - HPI Co-Owner; Valerie Chenoweth and Greg Sellers; Ryan Privee - Equipment Specialist and Psychic.

THE INVESTIGATION:

Usually I can tell if a home is haunted in the first 30 minutes. I usually do a sweep of the house with my recorder, doing quick and dirty EVP sessions. I simply say something, like..."is there anyone here?" I pause, give the entity time to talk and play back. As soon as I went into the bedroom, I captured an EVP of a man, that says: "What's that?". The voice sounded mechanical, but it was very clear. Deanna spotted a dark entity behind me in the kitchen area. Deanna detected an entity in the backyard shed and I captured a growling noise. Deanna saw a little girl in the backyard and I captured whispering of what could be a little girl. Ryan picked up on all kinds of voices on his spirit box. One of the voices said something about a disbelief in God. You can hear the spirit box recordings and EVPs at the videos on top of this article. Marilsa said that there is an entity that whistles in her home and she allowed me to hear the whistling on her smart phone, she recorded it. I capture some whistling while I was outside in the garage with Greg. Valerie did a video sweep of the house with Greg observing. For the short time that we were there, Ryan and myself captured a lot of evidence. Yes, this place is definitely haunted. Deanna did a metaphysical cleansing with sage on the outside of the house, while I conducted a Roman Catholic house blessing with Marilsa. This truly was an incredible night in collecting evidence. Ryan, also was picking up entities on his Kinnect and at one time an entity was touching my leg. During that time, my leg at one point felt "hot".

HPI (Halo Paranormal Investigations) used to give an extensive ghost tour through areas of Sacramento, that extended all the way to Citrus Heights. The tour was dark and macabre, but it was fascinating for many, as they learn the dark history of Sacramento. Sacramento definitely has a dark history. The ghost tour that HPI conducted once had a hearse and the participants were able to ride to the locations in this hearse. The hearse finally broke down and we could no longer utilize the hearse and had to start utilizing our own vehicles. Below are some of the areas of Sacramento, that our guests were able to visit during the tour. As the Demon Warrior, I would tell the stories and dramatize on how certain murders were done.

The Demon Warrior aka Paul Dale Roberts hosting a ghost tour. On this tour in Sacramento, I showed them the following:

1. William Land Park area, where Morris Solomon aka the Homicidal Handyman of Oak Park killed one of his female victims. Some people have reported unusual orb activity and sometimes they can hear a woman screaming late at night.

2. Sacramento River parking area at Sutterville Road and I-5 where Roger Kibbe aka the I-5 Strangler killed one of his female victims. He took out a pair of scissors from his glove department and started cutting the dress of his victim, then he strangled her. A black orb was captured on camera, that was hovering over the Sacramento River.

3. Philip Michael Thomas of Miami Vice brother Marcus Thomas aka The Oak Park Rapist - some of the areas where the rapes took place.

4. Martinez House, has a reputation of being very haunted.

5. Doreatha Puente House. Very haunted murder house.

6. Richard Trenton Chase victim's homes. Mist has been seen at some of the locations. The mist are believed to be the victims of Richard Trenton Chase the Vampire of Sacramento.

7. Old Sacramento - all of Old Sac is pretty much haunted, especially the Old Sac tunnels.

8. Bar in West Sac and Sunrise Mall parking lot, where Gerald and Charlene Gallego found 2 of their female victims. Charlene would lure the female victims with a promise of a modeling job and tell them that Gerald, a photographer is waiting in his van to meet them. Orb activity has been seen late at night at the Sunrise parking lot, where the victim was abducted by Gerald.

9. Apartment on W Street where Patty Hearst was holed up with the S.L.A. (Symbionese Liberation Army). Crocker National Bank on Marconi Blvd, in which Patty Hearst and the SLA robbed.

10. I-5 exit (Arena Blvd) where Randall Brent Woodfield aka the I-5 Killer killed one of his female victims. A woman whimpering can be heard late at night.

When I was in the comic book business, I used to create my own superheroes, my own comic book storylines, etc. I even published one comic book called The Legendary Dark Silhouette. Some of my characters have even appeared in other peoples' comic books. My comic book characters have a life of their own and they were created from my mind.

The drawing that you see in this article was drawn by Richard Vasseur. The anti-hero team is called The Organization of D.E.A.T.H. The team members are: Destroyer, Eliminator, Annihilator, Teacher and Harmony. This group are vigilantes and they go after international and domestic terrorists, serial killers and various felons. They are known to capture a terrorist or a serial killer and place them into a mock trial. Destroyer will play judge. Teacher will play defense attorney. Annihilator will at times play executioner. Eliminator will play prosecutor. Harmony will play jury. If the defendant is found not guilty, Teacher and Harmony will place the person on a 1 week rehab course and set free. If the defendant is found guilty, they will either be tortured by The Destroyer or the Eliminator. If they are to be executed, usually the Annihilator will do this.

POWERS:

I have been to something like 59 countries and territories. When I was the Army for 12 years, the travel bug bit me. There are so many other places I want to visit and perhaps sometime in the future, it will happen. In this article, I want to talk about Barbados. I have been to many islands in the Caribbean from St. Thomas to Haiti to Jamaica to the Dominican Republic to Puerto Rico to Aruba and more. A place that I haven't visited, but my brother Andrew (Andy) Somprise Soyo visited during his single days is Barbados. The year was 1971. Andy was living for a while in New York and decided New York was not the place for him and Andy came back to California and moved back in with our parents. Before Andy would start his job hunting, he already had airline tickets to visit Barbados. I wanted to go with Andy, but I was in high school and of course school is very important.

What I learned about Barbados from Andy is that early homo sapiens settled on this island in 1600 BC. During the 4th and 7th century AD, you had Amerindian settlements. You had Arawaks from South America living on the island. They shared the island with the Kalinago (Island Caribs) who were also from South America.

It is believed that in the 15th or 16th century, the Portuguese and possibly the Spanish settled on the island. In 1751 George Washington who really never traveled anywhere, stopped by this island and the house that he visited is now called the George Washington House. The first English ship, which arrived on May 14, 1625; was captained by John Powell. The first settlement began on February 17, 1627; near what is now Holetown (formerly Jamestown, after King James I of England). Historical records indicate that Africans were also settlers on this island.

During the time that Andy was visiting this island, he told me that he fed the monkeys and saw many sea turtles. My father and step-mother Cindy have been to Barbados also, and they said they fed the monkeys on the Barbados Wildlife Reserve. Dad and Cindy got to ride on the Atlantis submarine. The only time I ever rode in a submarine was in Papeete, Tahiti. It's an experience I will never forget and it's an experience that my dad and Cindy really enjoyed, because you can see all of the sea life in the ocean. When I was in Tahiti, I also rode on a Catamaran and snorkeled. When Andy was in Barbados, he also rode on a Catamaran and did some snorkeling.

One of the sights on this island is the Crane Resort, a place that Andy, my dad and Cindy loved. Andy told me that Barbados is the birthplace for rum. Andy said he was in heaven sipping on Barbados rum.

Now there is one place that Andy visited, that my dad and Cindy did not visit. That place was the Chase Vault. At this creepy crypt, the coffins have been moved around, standing straight up. The vault is located at Christ Church Parish Cemetery. The vault was built in 1724. Three family members were quickly buried in the vault in close succession of each other. The burial team later removed the heavy marble slab that sealed the entrance and found that the three coffins inside had been violently tossed around and were standing against the walls of the tomb.

The burial team opened the vault at a later time and the coffins were tossed around again. This time they threw sand on the floor so they could detect the intruder(s) footprints. The locals got wind of the weird occurrences and decided to open the vault and the coffins were tossed about again, yet there were no footprints. The coffins were removed quickly and buried somewhere else.

Andy talked with some of the locals on the island and some of the locals believe in the story and other locals say the story was misconstrued. One local said that there was a mild earthquake and the coffins were moved slightly. As the story got passed down from one person to another, the story became exaggerated and blown out of proportion. It got to the point that the story had the burial team open up the vault several times and every time they opened up the vault the coffins were standing straight up. The islander local told Andy, it's just a silly urban legend and has no truth to the moving coffins. My ex-wife Karen Jean Caruso/Walker took a cruise in the Caribbean and stopped off at Barbados and when she visited Christ Church Parish Cemetery, she felt hands on her shoulders and something tugged on her ankle. Karen said she almost fell from the tug on her ankle. Karen says that the cemetery is very haunted.

Sacramento Paranormal Haunted Hotline: 916 203 7503

As I mentioned before, I get a lot of calls on the paranormal hotline and some people merely want to tell their stories. I recently received a call from "Dave" in Visalia, CA. Dave does not want to be fully identified, because people will say he is crazy. Dave claims that on July 2014 at 4am, he was on Boyer Lane in Visalia and saw a very bright object in the sky. Dave's car stalled and the lighted object was now directly above him. Dave remembers the object was disc shaped with many lights. On the top half of the UFO he could see windows. In those windows were humans wearing some type of blue uniform. With the human looking occupants were two beings that seemed like they were on fire. Dave says he then blacked out and when he awoke back up, his car was now running and the object was gone. Dave does not remember anything else about the encounter. Dave said according to his cell phone, it was now 6:15am. Somehow, he was unable to remember anything from after 4am to 6:15am. In 2015, Dave had a vivid nightmare and he dreamed he was placed into an upright glass container. Looking at Dave, were the two fire creatures. Dave says that they were humanoid, but seemed to be completely on fire. The fire surrounding their bodies was red and orange. In this dream, Dave yells at the creatures...."who are you?" One of the fire creatures says his name was Igeis, pronounced Ig-e-is. Ig-e-is claimed he lived on a star and that they feed off energy. Igeis then placed his right hand outward and a ring of light shot out from his hand and went into Dave's stomach area. Dave says that it didn't hurt. Dave then woke up from his dream and Dave was drenched in sweat. Dave feels that this dream, may be memories that are coming back to him. I suggested to Dave that he should have hypnosis past-life regression done, so he can obtain his memories of the encounter. Dave says that maybe he will do this, but right now he is too scared to find out what happened on that Summer morning. I also asked Dave why he was out at 4am and Dave says he was leaving his girlfriend's house and headed back to his house. Dave says that he is not out for fame and glory and that is why he wants to remain anonymous. Dave wants to deliver his story to others and see if anyone else has experienced anything like this. Dave asked me if I knew of any encounters with fire creatures. The only thing I could provide were two stories that I know of. I asked Dave how he communicated with the creature in his dream and Dave says through telepathy. He says that the creature was speaking in a different language, but yet he was able to understand the creature.

FELIXSTOWE FIRE DEMON

The first story is the Felixstowe Fire Demon. This happened in Felixstowe, England. On September 20, 1965, sometime in the evening, 3 people in a vehicle spotting something unusual. They were 25 year old Geoffrey Maskey and his passengers Mavis Fordyce and Michael Johnson. At some point of time Maskey pulled the car over and the three of them had a nice conversation about their partying adventures that evening. All of a sudden Johnson stopped talking and started staring in the woods, like he was in a trance. Johnson didn't say anything and started walking out into the woods. Maskey and Fordyce thought nothing of it and thought Johnson went into the woods to relieve himself. Johnson while in the woods saw an oval shaped orange object hovering in the sky, making a humming noise. The following day Johnson recovered his senses and when his friends came to visit, he told them of his harrowing encounter with an ostensibly alien entity in the woods next to Walton Avenue. Johnson claimed that when he abruptly got out of the car the night before, he was compelled to do so by an unknown "force" which insisted that he go into the woods. Johnson when deep in the woods encountered a humanoid with large sloping eyes and was engulfed in orange flames. When he saw the humanoid, he blacked out. Johnson never disclosed on what happened to him, after he blacked out.

BLACK FOREST FIRE SPIRIT

When I was stationed in Nurnberg, Germany while in the US Army, I heard the story of the Black Forest Fire Spirit. I even went to the Black Forest hoping that I would encounter this creature, in which I never did. The incident happened during the medieval period. It is said that villagers who lived in the Black Forest saw a flying humanoid that was completely on fire. The flying creature that was on fire, flew around the village and then landed on top of a church steeple. It appeared that the creature wanted to convey a message to the villagers, but the villagers started throwing rocks at the creature. The creature then flew off, never to be seen again.

So, whatever Dave saw is not unique. There are stories of humanoids that have the ability to fly and having bodies that are engulfed in flames. I can only wonder if the Golden Age of Comics creator Carl Burgos who created the comic book character known as the Human Torch had heard of the story of the Black Forest Fire Spirit? Burgos was in the Army during World War II and may have heard the story from other soldiers. The reason I say this, is because I first heard the story from 3 soldiers while I was stationed in Germany. Later on Stan Lee and Jack Kirby took on the mantle of the Human Torch and I wonder if they were also aware of the story of the Black Forest Fire Spirit?

11/28/2021: Received a paranormal hotline call today: Client named Bryan says recently his grandfather died and the house he lives in is haunted. His shoe floated to the ceiling. His bedroom is sometimes thrashed by an unseen force. The house was built in the early 1980s, he believes the street he lives on, is some type of leyline. Rumors have it that the house is built on Indian burial ground. Bryan recently went to the Winchester Mystery House and brought home 3 bricks from the mansion and he didn't remember doing this. Case # 91B66M205G736. 8a1b2c1 Lemon Cove Court, Sacramento.

Sacramento Paranormal Haunted Hotline: 916 203 7503

Date of Call: 11/30/2021. Time of Call: 9:40 a.m. PST. I get plenty of calls on the paranormal hotline. Since the hotline number is a public number published on the Internet, the calls come in from all around the USA. There has even been a few international calls. I categorize the calls in two ways, some calls are what I call "average", where a person is telling me that their home is haunted and the average things are happening, like knocks on the walls, footsteps heard, maybe even a sighting of a ghost. Those type of calls, I usually do not write an article about. The other category is what I call "unique". The call is something that really catches my attention and I am compelled to write an article about it. Well, I received a "unique" call today, that I feel needs to be documented via an article. In this article, I will not disclose the location, but will disclose the client's first name, since it is a common name. The client does not want their personal information out on the internet and I respect that. The client in desperation called me, because she wanted to know how they can bless their home. The information I sent them, provides them details on how to conduct a blessing on their home and if they feel they have an attachment, the article provides the family on what needs to be done. You can see that article at the Costa Rican Times, as seen here:

www.costaricantimes.com/spiritually-cleansing-your-home/70345

Now to the story. We will call the client by her first name only. That name is "Helen". Location: Midwestern State. Helen tells me that when she was a little girl, she would go to a playground and play with the neighborhood kids. Ever once in a while, a potbelly man, that would at times wear a dirty t-shirt would come by walking his dog. She remembers him eyeing some of the children and it gave her a creepy feeling. This man had a purple birthmark that ran down from his forehead to his right eye. Sometimes the kids would tease him, or make fun of him. Then one day this creepy man with his dog, handed out lollipops to all of the children at the playground. After a while, this became a common thing, he would hand out lollipops to the kids. Some of the parents thought he was odd, but felt he was harmless. The kids started calling him Lollipop Man. As time went on, there were stories that he did something bad with two of the children that would frequent the playground and those children would never come back to the playground. The year was 1954 and Helen was 6 years old at the time. One day, the neighborhood talk was that Lollipop Man was found dead, face down in a nearby canal. It was ruled as suicide, but some people suspected murder and that maybe an angry parent killed Lollipop Man. Helen said her only close encounter with Lollipop Man was when he walked past her one day and stroked her hair and continued walking. When he did this, she had goosebumps on her arms, it really creeped her out.

Present Day: Helen says that she talked with her grand-daughter about "Stranger Danger" with her daughter present and relayed the story of Lollipop Man to her grand-daughter. Helen's grand-daughter on one night had a slumber party and her daughter caught the girls who were sleeping over, playing with a Ouija Board and calling out for Lollipop Man. The girls let out a scream, because the planchette flew across the room, this is what alerted Helen's daughter to check up on them. Helen's daughter scolded the girls for playing with a Ouija Board. The board was brought in to the slumber party by one of the girls that was spending the night. It was hidden in her back pack. Helen's daughter confiscated the Ouija Board and talked to the girl's mother on what she had done. The mother of the girl assured Helen's daughter that nothing like this will ever happen again and she apologized.

One week later, Helen's daughter noticed strange activity in her home. Cabinets would open on their own. Cold spots were felt in the hallway and Helen's grand-daughter was having night terrors and seeing in her dream a potbelly man with a purple birthmark on his face. Somehow during that Ouija Board session, they actually summoned Lollipop Man, he was now haunting the house. All types of other activity was occurring and the straw that broke the camel's back is when Helen's daughter woke up in the middle of the night and found the Lollipop Man on top of her and in the morning, she found a red lollipop sitting on her kitchen counter. When Helen's daughter saw the lollipop she let out a blood curdling scream. This compelled Helen to call me, to see what can be done. Helen assisted her daughter by saging the house and even had a psychic come over to conduct a cleansing ritual and nothing worked. After I sent Helen the article link on how she could do her own cleansing, she agreed to take the necessary steps in cleansing her home and the whole family is going to get re-baptized. I will stay in touch with Helen to see how everything progresses and assist her more if needed. Case pending closure.

The photos below are pictures of me, giving a class on paranormal investigating to ghost-hunters-in-training.

Ever watch the old private investigator movies? The private eye is sitting in his chair, smoking on a cigarette, hat tipped down, legs crossed over his desk. Then there is a knocking on the door. He gets up and a dame in distress enters his smoky office. She crosses her legs seductively and begins to tell her story. Hey...it's only a movie. Even though I once did some private investigation work with my own company Silhouette Enterprises, which was a complete failure and now my successful private investigator cousin Robert Crain, former CHP - has his own company Arcy Investigations, Inc.

at www.arcyinvestigations.com - we can both tell you, it's only a movie! Nowadays, my investigation work consists of paranormal investigations, which is a whole lot more successful than my days as a private dick. Instead of a smoky office, replace it with Starbucks. Enter the dame, well she still crosses her legs and tells me her story and what a story it is! Let's start from the beginning.

Alicia Garcia lived with her 5 siblings and her parents in a house somewhere in Sacramento. The house is over 50 years old. Alicia's parents have lived in this house for 30 some odd years and still live in that house to this day! During the time Alicia and her siblings lived in the house, there didn't appear to be any activity. When the kids all grew up and moved out, Alicia's parents started noticing odd things happening in and around the house. There were noises coming out of the closet. The noises sounded like paper rustling. This closet was located in Alicia's old bedroom. The odd thing about this house is for 10 years, it was peaceful, when Alicia and her siblings moved out, there has been all kinds of activity for the last 20 years. The activity started off slowly, then as time went on, it increased, one night there was a loud thump and Alicia's parents discovered that the TV was tipped over.

Then two nights in a row, Alicia's mother heard the doorbell ring, the dog woke up and acted startled. Alicia's mother stood at the window, opened up the curtains and discovered no one was there. The next night, the doorbell rang again and still there was no one there. The doorbell rang one night at 2am and another night at 3am. One night Alicia came over to visit and as she peered towards the hallway, a darting figure of a small 4 foot woman went by, she wore a hood and a cape and moved swiftly. On another night, Alicia's mother felt the bed press down, she woke up feeling the pressure of the bed. Alicia's mother wanted to think it was the ghost of her own deceased mother, this would calm her down. She wouldn't feel so frightened.

In another room on another night, a loud crackling boom resonated throughout the whole house. It startled the dog so much, the dog jumped on Alicia's mother's bed. The sound came from the corner of the bedroom, but there was nothing there. Alicia's mother started taking notes on the strange occurrences in her home and noticed that when something strange would happen, there would be a death in the family within days. More phenomenon happened, like one night a picture jumps off the wall and falls face up in a strange angle. Dishes are heard mysteriously shifting.

While Alicia was in her own home, she has a very odd dream. She sees a brilliant light materialize from a door in her bedroom that jettisons out the front door. The front door is wide open and the sun is giving off a dazzling white light from outside.

During this time, Alicia was having marital problems, in her heart she felt this was her 'ray of sunshine' and that her marriage would get better.

Alicia has a second dream, she hears a loud noise, she tries to nudge her sleeping estranged husband. Then she sees it, a lady in a white hood and cape, she stands at the height of 4 feet! In her dream, she asks the entity..."how did you get in?" Alicia grabs a stick, thinking it was an intruder and goes for a strike at the entity. She is dazzled by the exceptional whiteness of the lady's attire, it appears to be a brilliant pure white. The entity points to the fireplace and Alicia wakes up with a start!

Alicia has always felt protected by some unseen force and she recalls in her younger years, a male friend was drunk and driving erratically, there were other people in the car, including Alicia. Alicia felt unsafe, she felt like her life was in danger and just for a second, she thought she saw a hooded woman in white standing alongside the roadway. The drunken friend behind the wheel pulls over and everyone safely retreats from this horrible ordeal. Alicia felt she came close to death, but something protected her. She will never forget on how after she glimpsed the woman in white, that she saw her whole life flash before her very eyes! This is the Alicia Garcia story.

Activity: Occupant lived in the house for 11 years and the activity has been going on for 11 years. Matthew believes it could be a friend that died suicide by cop or another friend who committed suicide. There has been poltergeist activity, pictures flying off the walls, shadow figures seen, TV turns off and on by itself, closet door slamming. Wants investigation and cleansing.

Special Note: This investigation was canceled, due to the fact that Matthew's son was sick. Matthew plans to reschedule.

PARANORMAL INVESTIGATION

Date to be there: 12/18/2021 Saturday. Time to be there: 6pm. Contact Person: Amy Miller. Case# 53Y028Z2039R9. Address to be at: 110912 Fair View Drive, Gridley, CA - Amy's son and brother passed away, they were in a deadly car crash, a big rig slammed into them. Amy's son had a premonition that he would not live to see his 20th birthday and he died before his birthday. Amy feels spiritually attacked in her home. One time, an entity placed a pressure point on her foot and almost made her fall. Sometimes she feels sexually assaulted by an entity, or feels weird vibrations throughout her body. They have seen shadow people in their home and have taken photos and video footage of the shadow people.

MY THOUGHTS

Both of these cases are very serious and both cases had recent deaths of either family members or close friends. Both of these homes may have portals to the other side, due to the fact that people close to them have died and those people, who are now spirits may be visiting them via a portal and through that portal other type of entities go through. Some of those entities are malicious in nature. Amy has in her possession CCTV film footage of entities in her home and 2 compelling photos are of an entity with a hoodie on and an entity with no head. See youtube video above.

LOCATION SCOUTS FOR DISCOVERY + GHOST ADVENTURES

Deanna and I, are "Location Scouts" for Discovery + Ghost Adventures. I was contacted by a representative of Ghost Adventures and that representative asked me what upcoming cases I had on my schedule, that would be interesting for Zak Bagans and his crew. I told the representative about the case in Gridley. The representative then asked if they could take on this case after she communicated the Gridley case to Zak. The representative is going to set up an investigation one month from now with Zak and the crew and asked if I could hold off on my 12/18/2021 investigation, because if Deanna and I, do a cleansing, Zak and his crew will have nothing to investigate, because we would have gotten rid of the entities. So, HPI will not be investigating and cleansing this home on 12/18/2021. Amy, the owner of this home is willing to have Zak and his crew at her home one month from now. Amy still wants HPI to conduct a Roman Catholic house blessing and metaphysical cleansing of the home. Amy has also requested that Deanna and I, go ahead and give her a full submersion baptism, in case she has an attachment. I have performed many baptisms and my baptisms are very successful in getting rid of attachments. A full submersion baptism is a basic form of exorcism and if someone has an attachment, the attachment will immediately leave. The Roman Catholic house blessing is a very intense blessing using holy water and going through each room of the house, chasing out the entities of the home. I have agreed to hold off on the cleansing and let Zak and his crew do their own investigation of the home. Deanna and I, have been the location scouts for many episodes of Ghost Adventures. As location scouts we cover Northern California. Not only have we been location scouts for Ghost Adventures, but we have been location scouts for other paranormal shows and 1 popular TV show. As location scouts, we do get compensated for our hard work. So to sum it up, we are the location scouts of Northern California, since that is the area that we cover. Of course we have investigated internationally and throughout the United States, but our concentrated area is Northern California, because we live in Northern California.

I had many people that were intrigued with this case and were looking forward to our findings, but now you will all have to wait, until Zak and his crew do their own investigation of this home.

A SIMILAR CASE:

I had a similar case like the Gridley case in which a woman was being attacked by an incubus. I did an EVP session and asked for God's angels to help me identify the incubus. We captured an EVP that sounded like a growl and a deep breathy voice saying its name was Calicus. I asked if Calicus was an incubus and received a loud EVP that said "yes". We saw this woman push a 300 lb nephew to the ground and the woman must have only weighed 90 lbs. She was screaming at the top of her lungs and talking with a thick raspy deep voice. At times she would say threatening things in English and other times she was speaking in an unknown language. Four family members held her down in a chair and she managed to wrestle her way to freedom and again attacked her nephew. I threw holy water on her and said many prayers, finally she calmed down and I was able to give her a full submersion baptism. When the baptism happened and was over with, she was relieved she felt normal again. She also threw up afterwards. This case was only a few miles from Gridley, so I have to wonder is there something going on with the town of Gridley? Or is there something going on with the land in and around Gridley? Let's look at the history of Gridley:

HISTORY OF GRIDLEY

In and around Gridley (Butte County) we have large areas that have oak trees, manzanita brush, marshes and lakes that make a striking appearance during the rainy season. Lots of wildlife from geese, ducks, deer, antelope, tule elk, coyote, ground squirrels, raccoons, opossums and field mice surround the area near Gridley. The Maidu Indians settled in this area and later departed after the Spanish and Mexican scouting expeditions got under way in the 18th century. The town is named after George W. Gridley. George was a wool grower and grain farmer. He was one of the largest landowners in Butte County. George owned 960 acres and had a lavish ranch on his property. Gridley, Ca was established in 1870 and the Oregon and California Railroad constructed in Marysville, made life easier in Gridley.

In 1906 LDS (The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints) started migrating from Rexburg, Idaho to Gridley. In 1908 500 LDS members settled in Gridley. They built a large chapel that could accommodate 1000 members. This chapel was constructed on the west corner of Sycamore and Vermont Streets in 1912. Another interesting fact is that NASA engineer and YouTube star Mark Rober achieved a Guinness world record of the World's Largest Elephant's Toothpaste Explosion and this was done in the town of Gridley.

RECENT HPI INVESTIGATIONS THAT WILL BECOME GHOST ADVENTURES EPISODES:

1. OUR CASE IN AUBURN, THAT CAN BE SEEN HERE: jazmaonline.boards.net/thread/1915/haunted-ranch-house-auburn
2. THE GRIDLEY CASE AS MENTIONED IN THIS ARTICLE.
3. THE EPISODE "EMERGENCY IN ELK GROVE" IS A HPI CASE. (SPECIAL NOTE) THIS EPISODE IS COMPLETED.

NOW TO OTHER THINGS:

Just received this phone call on the paranormal hotline. Marion Rochelli of Trenton, New Jersey called me on 12/16/2021 at 15:35 Hours. Marion says that she recently came back from Italy and saw something incredible. I was intrigued on what she might tell me, as I have been to Bologna, Italy when I was in the Army, stationed at Nurnberg, Germany (Merrill Barracks). I thought Marion would tell me a ghost story, but she told me a story that was quite unbelievable. Marion says that she was sightseeing with her family and they were checking out the beauty of Lagazuoi Mountain in Cortina d' Ampezzo, Italy. Marion and her family spotted a silver disc shaped UFO that flew from the right of the mountain, to the left and went inside the mountain. Marion said there was a flash of light, when the UFO went into the mountain. After the disc went into the mountain and the flash of light was gone, everything was back to normal again and the UFO had vanished. There was no sign of a crash, it was as if the UFO went right inside the mountain. The weather was clear and crisp and this occurred sometime in July 2021. Marion hadn't mentioned this to any outside sources and hadn't planned to report it, but recently she had a vivid dream of the incident and couldn't get it off her mind and felt she needed to talk to someone about this incident.

Special Note: At my home, I have a collection of notes of haunted locations that I have visited. This article is from the case files of HPI.

In 1989, I went with my dad, my step-mother Cindy and my girlfriend at the time, named Dee Dee to Eureka, CA. It was a long drive and parts of the road is very winding. If you easily get car sick, I suggest that you don't drive to Eureka. When arriving in Eureka, you see many wooden Bigfoot statues. I am a very social person and the people of Eureka do not hesitate to tell you stories about this small little town. It seems that many people I talked to, have seen Bigfoot once in their lifetime. One story I got, a woman in her 70s told me that when she was 8 years old she saw a Bigfoot peeking at her from behind a tree, while she played on a swing set. That was her only encounter. Another thing I discovered is that Eureka is very, very haunted.

I met a gentleman named Mark Dagan and he told me that St. Mary's cemetery is very haunted. Mark told me that his brother Wayne went there with a few friends, because they heard about a little girl ghost named Sarah. Mark's brother Wayne and his friends saw an eerie blue light in the distance. Wayne and his friends walked towards the blue light to see what it was and as they got closer, they came upon a little girl shimmering in light that was surrounding her body. One of Wayne's friends said "hello" and the little girl turned around and Wayne and his friends saw that she did not have any eyes, all she had were black eye sockets where the eyes used to be at. Wayne and his friends beat feet and got the heck out of that cemetery. To this day Wayne will not venture into this cemetery. 32 minutes down the road is the town of Scotia and at the Scotia Inn, tourists say they can hear a young boy playing ball. Mark Dagan says he stayed at this Inn and about 2 a.m. he heard someone bouncing a ball against the wall. This bouncing noise kept Mark awake and he yelled from his bed...."will you please stop bouncing the damn ball!!!" 5 minutes later, he felt his whole bed shake. Mark thought it was an earthquake. Everything was quiet in his room and Mark was able to eventually fall to sleep. In the morning Mark discovered he had 3 long scratch marks down his chest area. Mark later learned that this Inn, had a little boy ghost that likes to play with his ball. Mark feels that he got scratched by the ghostly little boy with the ball.

It is said that the reason why Eureka is so haunted, is because it once had a wild and bawdy past. There are many historic buildings in Eureka. Back in the 1800s, it was a port town that bustled with sailors, lumberjacks and gold miners. There was lots of drinking, lots of fights, lots of stabbings, gambling, prostitution and murder. There was an 1860 massacre of the Wiyot Native American Indians and many people make claim that they will see Indian spirits roaming the back roads. Sometimes they hear mysterious drumming in the deep woods. Just a mere 7 minutes away is the town of Samoa and the people of Samoa say the whole town is haunted, especially on Cadman Court Street. Darian McBride says that while he was walking down Cadman Court Street he came upon a woman in 1800s dress and she was bent over crying. Darian thought she was a street actress and asked what is wrong and if he could help her. The woman turned to look at Darian and there was a large knife cut down her left cheek and blood splattered around her face and neck. Darian looked at the woman and said..."who did this??" The woman then put her head down and slowly vanished in front of Darian's eyes.

One of the places that I enjoyed visiting was the Fort Humboldt State Historic Park. This historic military fort was established in 1853. It was the home of the Humboldt Military District. For a very short time, it was the home of Captain Ulysses S. Grant. Grant did not like the isolation of this fort and requested to be transferred. The fort was finally abandoned in 1870. In the surrounding landscape the Wiyot, Hoopa, Yurok and Hupa tribes had settlements in the area. There were many skirmishes with these tribes by other settlers. Some Indians were killed where they stood and their dead body was left to decay where they were killed. Larry Hornbrough makes claim that he saw ghostly soldiers in blue uniforms on an early foggy morning, walking along the field. As Larry watched them, they faded away into nothingness. From our tour guide I learned that many soldiers that stayed in this fort, were veterans of the Mexican/American War. I have an actual connection to this fort. My ex-mother-in-law Shirley (Silva) Buchanan was once married to a Buchanan and this ex-husband displayed lineage to General Robert C. Buchanan. When Robert C. Buchanan stayed at this fort, he was a lieutenant colonel for the U.S. 4th Infantry Regiment and later became a General during the Civil War. At this fort, there were at one time 14 buildings and a few locals I talked to say that all 14 buildings will appear early in the morning, around 4am, for a few seconds and then things will go back to normal and only the hospital building will be seen.

When visiting Eureka, I stopped off at Carson Mansion and Old Town Eureka. Both places are very, very haunted. Hector Grimsley told me and my dad that not only is Carson Mansion and Old Town Eureka is haunted, but so is the Clarke Historical Museum, the Morris Graves Museum of Art, Eureka Books, and the Eureka Theater. Hector says all of these places have ghosts and many locals have seen ghosts in all of these places. One long-time Eureka resident, whose home had once been used as an orphanage, reported hearing sounds of children playing and a deep male voice that seemed to be protecting them. The only paranormal experience I had in Eureka is when Dee Dee was taking pictures of the Carson Mansion, she captured a strange mist by the doorway of the mansion. Her 2nd picture, the mist was gone. A local named Jesse Caudill says that at the Clark Mansion he saw a snarling cowboy with a rifle. The snarling cowboy pointed the rifle at Jesse and then pointed the rifle to the ground, turned around and walked away. As Jesse watched the gun man, he simply faded away into nothingness. Jesse then realized he had just seen a ghost. If you ever have a chance to visit Eureka, you will enjoy the atmosphere of this small town. There is so much beauty and history in this town and plenty of ghosts and cryptid creatures known as Bigfoot lurking about. Also on a special note, there are many UFOs seen along the beach line. Below is an example of just one UFO case in Eureka. This case was reported to MUFON.

THE EUREKA UFO REPORT:

I was driving down California St in Eureka California, towards the south. 9:00pm last night 3-6-10; I saw a very very bright light in the sky, dime size, it was too large to be a star, and much too close, the size of a dime in the sky...

All of a sudden 2 sets of lights came out of it traveling down and east. The bright object started dumping flaming objects like coals on a barbecue, they were falling to earth but would extinguish before impact.

Some were very large, fire also appeared to fall. When this fire stopped 2 more objects with lights came out again, this time flying upwards.

The larger object emitted more flame and cinders, I thought something may have been wrong and it was possibly going to fall to earth, instead it flew straight up until it became very small and stopped. The fire stopped. It suspended itself at that elevation until the fog covered it and I could no longer see.

I know several others stopped their cars to watch as did I.

INITIAL REPORT:

EMERGENCY PARANORMAL INVESTIGATION

Date to be there: December 26, 2021, Sunday. Time to be there: 6pm. Address to be at: Gridley, CA. Contact Person: Amy Brimm Miller. Case Number 5P30H282E039C9. Activity: Extreme demonic activity. The demon is telling Amy to kill herself. Amy's son and brother passed away, they were in a deadly car crash, a big rig slammed into them. Amy's son had a premonition that he would not live to see his 20th birthday and he died before his birthday. Amy feels spiritually attacked in her home. One time, an entity placed a pressure point on her foot and almost made her fall. Sometimes she feels sexually assaulted by an entity, or feels weird vibrations throughout her body. They have seen shadow people in their home and have taken photos and video footage of the shadow people.

THE INVESTIGATION:

Deanna Jaxine Stinson aka Wish and I, made a full sweep of the house, seeing if we can get any anomalies in our photographs and videos. We also attempted to get some EVPs. Things that are happening in this home, are disclosed at the video above in my briefing with the occupant Amy Brimm Miller. Deanna, our psychic medium picked up on some of the entities in the home and picked up on Amy's ex-husband's deceased mother. Deanna was able to describe her.

THE STRANGE SYNCHRONICITY

I have been on over 2,500 cases. A lot of my cases are demonic in nature. What I noticed is that most demonic cases, the occupants will tell me that they see demonic faces in their carpet, or they see demonic faces on the walls, etc. Is this a form of pareidolia or are they really seeing demonic faces in their bath towels, carpets, windows, walls, couches, etc.? It's so strange that this happens on most demonic cases. In one demonic case I had in Pleasanton, the occupant was seeing demonic faces in his stucco wall and he would point out the mouth, nose and eyes on the pattern of stucco. In our Gridley case, I was not able to see any demonic faces in the occupant's carpet. When we did an EVP sweep, I did manage to get one EVP of a male voice saying "go home". The "go home" was actually a polite male voice saying it and we captured this voice in one of the bedrooms.

THE CLEANSING:

Deanna left a care package of sage and healing candles for Amy. I gave Amy a full submersion baptism in her hot tub. A full submersion baptism is a basic form of exorcism and if you have an attachment, the attachment will immediately leave....well, in most cases, please read on. I also conducted a Roman Catholic house blessing to chase out the entities. I have about an 80 percent success rate in my cleansing and my baptisms. In this case, I was not successful. So, now I will go with Plan B. Plan B, I will now bring in a shaman to assist Amy and hopefully that will work. If not, I have a Plan C, Plan D and even a Plan E. God bless Amy and I hope her torment from these demons will soon be vanquished. Special Note: When I did the cleansing, Amy told me that good spirits, like her son and brother can stay, but anything negative had to leave.

A POSSIBLE REASON WHY THIS HOME IS HAUNTED:

There is a cemetery right down the street. The Maidu Indians settled on this land in Butte County. There were Spanish and Mexican expeditions in this area. Many settlers had skirmishes with the Maidu Indians and many Maidu Indians lost their lives in these skirmishes. The Oregon and California railroad was built near this area and many Chinese laborers on the railroad died from exhaustion. Deanna detected a portal in one of the bedrooms and perhaps Amy's brother and son came through that portal and following Amy's son and brother, were some negative entities. These are all possibilities.

MESSAGE FROM AMY:

After the investigation, I received this message from Amy on Facebook: "Hi Paul, so since you've left they started this hypocrate higher than I've ever heard I have a migraine they won't stop and I do believe my son is in a lot of control of this I want him to leave and I don't know how to make him leave none none of them believe me alone". My Thoughts: I believe what Amy is trying to convey here is that the entities are making a high pitch sound, which is causing her to have a migraine. The entities are still tormenting her. That is where Plan B comes into focus.

INITIAL REPORT

Date to be there: January 1, 2022 Saturday. Time to be there: 6pm. Contact Person: Kim. Case #91P633T762K55. Address to be at: Loomis, CA. Activity: Kim went on a date with some guy who claims he is a parapsychologist. This date told Kim she has a demon in the house and that she is on her own with this demon, that he can't help her. The only thing that Kim has witnessed in her house are strange knockings on the wall and she saw a dark figure in her bedroom. The guy that she went on a date with her, says the demon waits outside of her home and is waiting to be invited in and said that some spirits are attached to her daughter. Listening to the story, I believe she only has a ghost in the home and not a demon, but she wants us to check it out and do a cleansing.

HPI PARANORMAL INVESTIGATORS ROLL CALL:

Paul Dale Roberts- HPI Co-Owner; Deanna Jaxine Stinson - Psychic Medium and HPI Co-Owner; Mike Ouilhon - EMF Monitor; Alaceo "Big Al" Rosatano - EVP Analyst; Ryan Privee - Equipment Specialist/Psychic. Occupants: Kim and her daughter Ava Foreman.

THE INVESTIGATION:

Eva has felt a presence, like someone is stroking her hair. When we went into Eva's bedroom, we did get an EVP of a man saying "hello", but you can listen to the EVP at the videos above and tell me what you think it says. In the living room, we captured an EVP that sounds like a man growling, but some investigators say it is saying a word. We captured some other EVPs that were unintelligible or just sounded like faded out voices. The clearest EVPs was the "hello" and "the possible growling". Deanna when entering the home, saw two ghostly cats. One ghostly cat was more dominant than the other one and it was black and white. Later our other psychic Ryan, not hearing Deanna's story, saw a black and white ghostly cat. Down the street, Deanna saw a misty form. Deanna also picked up on a little girl and we did get an EVP of a girl giggling, the person that obtained this EVP was Big Al.

SIDE NOTES:

Kim told me that the so-called parapsychologist that she was dating told her that the demon is waiting to be invited inside. In all of my demonic cases, the demon did not have to be invited inside. This sounds more like a vampire cliché. A vampire before entering your home, must be invited by the head of the household to enter. This is something that Dracula novelist Bram Stoker made up.....I do not believe there is any demon in the home or outside of the home. Deanna and Ryan did not pick up on a negative forces in this home, all they felt were positive vibes in this home. I still conducted a Roman Catholic house blessing and Ryan said that after I did the cleansing, there was no more activity shown on his ghost hunting equipment. Special Note: Deanna left the occupants a care package containing candles and smudge wands, she also gave some smudge wands to the HPI crew.

Below are calls that I received on the paranormal hotline:

Sacramento Paranormal Haunted Hotline: 916 203 7503

It's a hot day, it feels like Summer already. I know on this day, I'm going to do a lot of outside work. Outside work that will consist of ghosthunting. Pika (my Jack Russell Terrier) and I, headed up to the Broadway Cemetery in Sacramento. There we met up with the rest of the team of GRG paranormal investigators: Danielle Carpenter, Nancy Bradley/Celebrity Psychic, Robert Reppert/Founder of GRG, Catherine Noble, Rodney Roberts, Liz Harrison, Millieanne Jackson, Brian Abeel.

We were investigating three areas this day, that is known for paranormal activity. The first area is the Broadway Cemetery. I have taken my dogs the late T-Rex (Chow) and Pika to this cemetery and Pika once came upon an area and started barking frantically and going around a circle as if there was someone there. There was no one there, but yet he was focused in this area of nothingness. It would be interesting to see if Pika will have the same reaction on this day, Sunday April 13, 2008.

As we surveyed the cemetery using sound enhancers, digital audio recorders, video cameras, digital cameras, temperature gauges, electro-magnetic field readers, we came upon some interesting tombstones. We found one that belongs to the late Margaret Harrigan, that reads: "not as dead, but gone before". I pondered..."what the heck does that mean?" Oh well, as we moved along, Robert notifies me that his video camera at one location indicates 60 minutes left on his battery, as he left that area, then it read 114 minutes left on his battery. It is theorized, that entities are able to drain energy from power poles, batteries and even from people. This was a good possibility. At the Broadway Cemetery, the lead investigators are: Danielle Carpenter and Brian Abeel. Brian and Danielle give us a briefing on the historical characters at this cemetery, such as John A. Sutter, Jr. (built Sutter's Fort and established an empire called New Helvetia); Hardin Bigelow (credited for building Sacramento's first levee system); Newton Booth (lawyer, merchant and politician); General George Wright (fought in Seminole War / Mexican War / Indian Campaigns in the Pacific Northwest); Edwin Bryant Crocker (Justice on California's Supreme Court circa 1863); Jesse Haycock (one of the victims of the cholera epidemic that killed over a thousand Sacramentans in 1850); Mark Hopkins (Forty-Niner - one of railroad's legendary 'Big Four'); Albert Maver Winn (Sacramento's first city council member in 1849); William Stephen Hamilton (first Treasurer of the United States - son of Alexander Hamilton); Governor John Bigler (California's 3rd governor in 1852); Capt. James T. Homans USN (earliest known burial circa 1858).

At the Mark Hopkins tomb, Danielle & Brian at another time, were drawn to this area. When Catherine Noble used her divining rods, they started responding to this location. Nancy, a top-notch proven psychic was able to touch the above-the-ground tomb and pin-point where Mark Hopkins lay and where his wife was laying. Nancy is pretty incredible, just recently I went to the town of Paradise with Pika to pick up a Rat-Terrier female dog named HPI (pronounced Hippie) Sally. I brought the dog home and placed her in the garage with Pika. I went to take a shower and came out to the garage and HPI Sally was gone, she went through a small hole in the fence. The next day Nancy emailed me and gave me the directions that HPI Sally went and told me that my neighbor to my left either had my dog or saw the dog. She was correct on all accounts, the directions that Nancy gave me were dead-on. Nancy's directions leads to the Laguna Wetlands. The neighbor to my left had stopped me and told me she saw HPI Sally running with another terrier (color black) in the Laguna Wetlands. Later Nancy told me that HPI Sally was running around with a dark colored dog and she feels HPI Sally's heart beating, so she is still alive.

Pika found a location that he got excited at, it was the tombstone of A.C. Kidder, the tombstone reads: "Born 1825 - We Shall Meet in the Morning". Pika stayed at this location as if he was interacting with something that we could not see. Nancy Bradley feels a high energy level at the gravesite of Elizabeth Bryte. The divining rods picked up strong energy at the Masonic gravesite of P.L. Lykins. Nancy demonstrates how you can feel energy. You must close your eyes and when your body starts leaning towards a certain direction, your body picks up on the energy, you have an imbalance or like I would call it...'a vertigo moment'. Nancy Bradley came upon the gravesite of Velma Frances Bradley and she was determined to find out how she died, since she carries the same last name. As Nancy concentrated, she determined that Velma died of a breathing problem, possibly pneumonia. Nancy also points out an interesting area and felt like it was an unmarked grave. We came upon 12 tombstones that were marked with the year of death as 1964, for all 12 tombstones. Nancy determined they all died in a major fire, she could feel a rush of heat (like fire) that went from her feet to her head.

Robert Reppert discovered areas that should be walkways from various markers that have been placed in the ground, but yet gravesites dotted the walkways, which was very unusual. Brian gets a reading of 3.4 on his EMF Reader at the gravesite of Mary E. Bawden and being a sensitive, he was being bombarded with messages in his mind, as if the late Ms. Bawden was trying to relate her story to him. Pika again stopped at another location, the Stafford tombstone and became excited. It appeared he was detecting something at this gravesite.

After we left the Broadway Cemetery, we convoyed back to Nancy Bradley's home. I had an enjoyable ride with Catherine Noble in my car, as she told me some of her interesting guests, that she has on her show 'Journey into the Paranormal'. Catherine is a very fascinating woman that has had many experiences herself and it was a pleasure to hear about her adventures.

At Nancy Bradley's home, we debriefed and prepared to get ready for the next two investigations, while enjoying pizza and sodas. The next location was the Diamond Springs Cemetery. Lead Investigator: Paul Dale Roberts. I gave everyone a briefing that Nancy Bradley, Shannon 'Ms. Macabre' McCabe and I, did a preliminary investigation at this cemetery. I was using a Listen Up Sound Enhancer and picked up a little girl's voice, that say..."hey, you". Nancy was able to pick up the area of the little girl's gravesite. As we left this cemetery, the little girl beckoned me with a "hey", as if she was trying to get my attention.

We came back to this cemetery to see if we could make contact again with the little girl. Instead of using a Listen Up Sound Enhancer, we had a much larger sound enhancer that had recording capabilities. I was using this high tech sound enhancer as I combed the cemetery. I had all of the investigators attempt to get some EVPs. At 3:38pm, I picked up what sounded like a man whistling at the gravesite of "John, son of J & E Stanley". Pika at this location, did not detect any paranormal activity, he was too busy digging into gopher holes. When he was done digging, he was a filthy mess.

Finally the third area of investigation the lead investigators were Liz Harrison and Millieanne Jackson. The area of question is called the Wal-Mart Grove. Nearby Robert Reppert found an old farmhouse in which he used a metal detector and found old soup cans circa the 1800s. The area in question Millieanne has picked up what she calls 'Indian energy'. The energy at this area has a calming effect. The calming effect is suitable for Brian Abeel to use his windpipe and play a song that was dedicated to his deceased cat named Booker. I can feel Brian's pain, since I recently lost my Chow named T-Rex. It was a great way to start the investigation into the Wal-Mart Grove, where there is a lot of positive energy from a time long ago.

Since Nancy Bradley is a renowned American psychic, she teaches her investigators to use their sixth sense in an investigation. Nancy tells me I have a sixth sense, but as a journalist and a ghosthunter, I still enjoy the findings done by scientific means. That is where Nancy's husband steps in, he uses the scientific approach of discovery and seeks out to prove or disprove impressions that are felt in certain areas. The only sensitive that Robert can't disprove is his own wife Nancy. Nancy can get an impression at a certain location and Robert can follow it up later with either photographic evidence or a captured EVP.

Drawing above is by William Carlisle. This drawing depicts me (Paul Dale Roberts) HPI's Esoteric Detective at Blind Frog Ranch in Utah. I am analyzing a gold coin found at the ranch with my magnifying glass. Supposingly, there is treasure hidden at this ranch. A lot of paranormal activity happens at this ranch, such as UFO sightings, ghosts, poltergeist activity, Bigfoot sightings and it's only about 25 miles from Skinwalker Ranch.

On October 4, 2008, Saturday, I ventured to Skinwalker Ranch in Utah. I went with 2 of my paranormal investigators. On the night that we arrived in the Uintah Basin, it was storming. For the life of me, I don't know how I was able to drive to the basin in that violent lightning storm. On that night, I witnessed ball lightning and heard a strange screeching sound. You can see the full story here:

What I enjoy about paranormal investigating, is interviewing the witnesses. There was one witness, that I didn't pay much attention to, because he was talking about another ranch and not the Skinwalker Ranch. I took notes and came across those old notes in my "HPI Files". Adam Cottage explained to me that his grandfather sought out a hidden gold treasure 25 miles from Skinwalker Ranch. Adam says that his grandfather received information that a huge treasure trove of gold is hidden in the Utah Hills, near and around the Uintah and Ouray Indian Reservation at a ranch. Adam also says there is a lot of UFO activity at this ranch and spectral ghosts and shadow people have been seen at this ranch. Going through these notes, it dawned on me that Adam must be talking about the Blind Frog Ranch! I knew nothing about the Blind Frog Ranch, until Discovery Channel put on a new reality TV series called "Mystery at Blind Frog Ranch."

Blind Frog Ranch was given this name, because blind frogs were found on the property by the owner. This 160 acre ranch sits near La point Utah and is known to have UFO activity on and around the property. The Blind Frog Ranch is VERY near to Skinwalker Ranch, perhaps 25 miles down the road.

When I was talking with Adam, he told me that I should be investigating not only the Skinwalker Ranch, but the ranch down the road (Blind Frog Ranch). Adam says that his grandfather was friends with one of the Indian elders and that this elder told him that this land near and around Blind Frog Ranch was once inhabited by giants. Adam calls these giants the Nephilim, because his grandfather called them the Nephilim. Adam's grandfather was very religious. The giants buried and hid large amounts of gold in caverns at the land surrounding Blind Frog Ranch. Adam's grandfather says that bones of giants were found in some of the caverns and those bones were taken away by the military, never to be seen again. Adam learned from his grandfather that the reason why UFOs are seen at Blind Frog Ranch is because of the gold and that there is a leyline that goes from Blind Frog Ranch to Skinwalker Ranch. Adam also told me that according to his grandfather that the leylines are used as portals to get from point A to point B, and that they are an energy source used by the UFOs. Adam's grandfather acquired all of this information and knowledge from an elder. This elder had the powers of a shaman and was connected and communicated with extraterrestrials.

Adam believes that one day, we will discover gold and the bones of giants at the location of Blind Frog Ranch. Listening to Adam's story at the time, I didn't realize his story had any foundation of truth. I did take careful notes and I am glad I did, I recently learned that a Utah native named George Keller learned about a secret cave from his Native American Indian friend named Lone Eagle. Lone Eagle took George Keller to this secret cave. In this secret cave, they came across ancient metal records, the mummified remains of giants, arrowheads, 2 inscribed bell like objects made of lead and stone tablets. George Keller related this information to the landowner named John Brewer. The secret cave became known as Brewer's Cave. All of this information is the stuff of legend and discovered in the diaries of John Brewer. Some scholars believe that parts of John Brewer's diary is fabricated and the cave was never located. There are pictures of some of the items from the cave that exist today and may be the only proof of the existence of this cave.

I hope there will be a thorough investigation of Blind Frog Ranch. I am curious on what they may find.

The drawing above is by William Carlisle and depicts Kolchak - The Night Stalker in the caves of Mount Shasta hunting the paranormal with Paul Dale Roberts.

Being a world traveler, I have been to over 50 countries and territories. These are some of the places I have been and I will explain to you why I think they are some of the best haunted places in the world!

1. A Red Light District Studio in Amsterdam: A lady of the night named Cindy works out of a window studio in the Red Light District. Cindy told me that her studio is extremely haunted. Cindy saw the back door opening on its own and closing on its own. Cindy has been touched by an unseen entity. Cindy has heard a female voice whisper in her ears. Cindy believes that the lady who worked this window studio before is still around as a ghost. The lady that worked this studio committed suicide and still likes to hang out. Cindy says she is not scared of the ghost and says she likes the company.

2. Papeete & Morea, Tahiti: Tahiti is a fun place. You can swim with the dolphins, you can observe the foggy mist that surrounds the luscious green mountains of the islands. This is the place where Mutiny on the Bounty was filmed at. Everything is done by 'island time'. This means if you are going to feed the sharks at 5pm and you are waiting for the bus, the bus may arrive at 6pm. As you travel down the road in this bus, it may do a U-turn so the bus driver can pick up her friend. Then the bus will arrive at the spot where they are going to feed the sharks. Don't worry, everyone is waiting for you to arrive. You arrive on 'island time'. When we rode on this bus, we stopped at a very old cemetery on the island. It was the most creepiest cemetery I have ever seen. The islanders leave all sorts of family possessions on the graves and it is rumored that late at night in this cemetery, spirits have been seen roaming in and around this cemetery. When night falls upon this cemetery, you must remember there are no street lights, so everything is spectacularly dark!

3. Umoya Lodge, Auckland, New Zealand: Auckland is a busy metropolis. When I stayed in Auckland, I stayed at the Umoya Lodge. This lodge is rumored to have a Maori doorman ghost that wanders the halls at 3:00 a.m. Once in a great while, a tourist will see this Maori doorman casually walk the halls as if he is looking for something. It is said that he was truly an employee of the hotel and that one night, he suffered a massive stroke while sitting on a couch in the lobby. He has never left the hotel, because he felt the hotel was his home and he loved out-of-country guests. He would always greet the guests of the hotel with a smile.

4. Tower of London - England: When I was in England, I visited Stonehenge, Westminster Abbey, Piccadilly Square, East End where Jack the Ripper and the Kray Twins frequented. From England, I took a train to Edinburgh, Scotland and a train back that went through Cardiff, Wales. On this train ride, I was looking for crop circles. I didn't see any. I will never forget my tour of the Tower of London. This place is extremely haunted. Tower of London is on the North bank of the Thames River. This is a place that prisoners were interrogated, tortured and executed. The Kray Twins were the last prisoners of this fortress. Ravens flock to the tower, if the Ravens ever left the Tower of London, the curse says that the Tower of London, The White Tower, the Monarchy and the whole Kingdom would fall. During WWII, most of the ravens were killed, there was one survivor, the Raven's name was Grip. After WWII was over, more ravens came back to the Tower of London. The Ravenmaster

now takes care of the Ravens. The ghost of Guy Fawkes who inspired the movie and comic book 'V for Vendetta', was tortured and executed in the Tower of London, he is one of many, many ghosts that haunt the Tower of London. Added note: I also stopped off at: Edinburgh, Scotland and Cardiff, Wales. Edinburgh and Cardiff have many ghost stories and some UFO sighting stories.

5: Puerto Rico: When I stayed in Puerto Rico, I wouldn't say the island is haunted by ghosts, but it is haunted by the infamous Chupacabra! There are many, many reportings of this odd creature. A creature that is vampiric by nature. It seems that this creature has bat type of wings, it sort of resembles a 'gray' alien, it flies, it's agile and it can drain the blood out of a goat in a matter of seconds. Could this be an offshoot of a 'gray' alien? Was there some DNA manipulation done by the 'grays', that created this hideous monstrosity? Did the Chupacabras escape the grays and now are trying to survive on the island of Puerto Rico? It is rumored that there is a UFO base off the waters of Puerto Rico. Many UFOs are seen coming in and out of the ocean that surrounds Puerto Rico. Puerto Rico also is in the Bermuda Triangle. This is a very mysterious island and the Chupacabra legend continues to grow. When I was in Puerto Rico, I did not encounter the Chupacabra. Instead I encountered many beachcombers.

6: Bluebeard's Castle, St. Thomas: I went to St. Thomas to see my sister Sharon get married to a guy named Captain Crazy Jeff Voshell. Jeff was the Captain of his own boat called the Orion. He would take tourists to other islands that were nearby in his vessel. He was also a boat mechanic and one of his client's was Morgan Freeman, the movie actor. Captain Crazy Jeff Voshell was a legend on the island and it is rumored that the movie "Captain Ron" was based on him. Jeff was just like Captain Ron, very obnoxious, in-your-face type of guy, a real rugged sailor. My new brother-in-law took me to Bluebeard's Castle, that is reputed to be haunted by the spirits of pirates. Some of the locales claim that the ghosts of the pirate known as Blackbeard and the pirate known as Bluebeard haunt Bluebeard's Castle.

7. Dublin Castle, Dublin, Ireland: I have a plaque in my house that reads: Blarney Castle, in the Village of Blarney and the County of Cork, Ireland, I hereby certify that Patricia Mary Roberts, Paul Dale Roberts & Jason Randall Porter of Sacramento, California visited this castle and/having kissed the Blarney Stone is now sent forth with the gift of eloquence which this stone bestows dated this 25th day of March 1997 - signed Richard Lowe(sp) Glohmust(sp) Keeper of the Castle. When I entered this castle, there was a thickness in the air. I would say that Blarney Castle is extremely haunted. There is a fairy passage underneath the castle and I could only walk half way into this dark passage and had to turn back, because I felt a feeling of dread. Are there ghosts at Blarney Castle? You betcha! Added Note: Took a train to Northern Ireland and a lady on this train said that the train going to Northern Ireland was haunted by a little girl.

8. Red Square, Moscow, Russia: I saw the Kremlin, Gorky Park, the KGB headquarters and Red Square in Moscow! There is so much history in Moscow, it would take a whole book to talk about it. Stalin was one time displayed at Red Square and his body mysteriously disappeared. I was able to see Lenin's body encased in glass. The very first Cosmonaut is buried at Red Square. Many stories are told by the Russian people that spirits are all around Red Square. Some of the spirits that are rumored to haunt this area are the tragic Romanovs.

9. Kwai Bridge, Thailand: When I was in Bangkok, I had to see Kwai Bridge which inspired the movie based on the true story: The Bridge over River Kwai (starring John Wayne), where many, many American soldiers were tortured and lost their lives. There is a museum that displays the horrific episodes that occurred. The Thai people say the Bridge over River Kwai is very haunted. People have heard moaning sounds as if people were either dying or being tortured. This is a good place for a residual haunting activity. Besides the hauntings, Thailand is a fun place. This is where I went para-sailing for the first time. The hotel I stayed at, Centre Point Hotel, Room 805 was a very tranquil room with many accommodations. The people of Thailand are very friendly and there is so much to do. Why do you think they wrote that song..."One Night in Bangkok by Murray Head"? Added Note: Also stopped at Burma, Hong Kong, Pattaya Coral Island. Flew over Vietnam, Aleutian Islands, Bering Sea, Midway Islands, Laos.

10: Morocco, Africa: When I was walking the streets of Morocco, I kept imagining a dark van pulling up next to me, the doors opening and ski masked men grabbing me and pulling me inside the van and driving me away to some unknown location. I was scared in Morocco, especially after 9/11. I wanted to hurry up and catch the ferry back to Gibraltar. Morocco at one time was a romantic place. Movies are still made in Morocco, like Colin Farrell in the movie Alexander, was partially filmed in Morocco. As you walk down the streets, you can purchase a flying carpet at some bazaar. You can eat Couscous, a type of Semolina pasta. There are many ghostly stories in Morocco. There is talk of haunted synagogues. There is talk of families plagued by demons. Perhaps the demon known as The Legion as seen in the movie Exorcist originates from Morocco. Morocco to me, is scary in many ways, not a place I want to stay for a long period of time. Added Note: Also stopped over at Vilar Formoso - Portugal, Gibraltar, Madrid - Spain.

There are many haunted areas in the world, what I tried to do is take you off the beaten path with areas that you may not be aware of. Everyone knows about the Tower of London, but how many people know about the cemetery in Papeete, Tahiti? I have a strong interest in the paranormal and that is why I am the co-owner of H.P.I. (Halo Paranormal Investigations).

Sacramento Paranormal Haunted Hotline: 916 203 7503

12 years of my life in the US Army was an adventure. Traveling overseas. From 1973 to 1976, working with C.I.D. (Criminal Investigation Division) - D.S.T. (Drug Suppression Team) in Germany. I took a 3 year break from the Army after 1976, and then in 1979, I took (MI) Military Intelligence training in Fort Huachuca, Arizona. I was a 97 Bravo (Intelligence Analyst) with P.I.C.K. (Photo Interpretation Center Korea). I was stationed with the 501st Military Intelligence Battalion at Yongson Barracks. I worked with Image Interpreters that were able to look at a reconnaissance aerial photo and tell you a small dot was a T-72 tank in North Korea. The surveillance photos that they looked at were of North Korea and Red China. My job was to categorize any "hot photos" that could be something that we need to keep an eye on. I would create a sitmap and pinpoint locations that could either be training exercises or a possible build up at the DMZ (38th parallel) which could cause an international incident.

ALMOST AN INTERNATIONAL INCIDENT

Before I go on, I have to tell you a story. They took some of the Military Intelligence soldiers to the 38th parallel and specifically told us do not touch the table on the North Korean side, because the North Korean soldiers may be offended and apprehend us. We were also told not to look at the North Korean soldiers in their eyes, this could also set them off. They told us to take off our Military Intelligence insignia, so that we cannot be identified as MI. As we were walking around the conference table, I started changing the film in my camera and placed my camera on the North Korean side of the table. My Captain signaled me to pick up the camera immediately. When the Captain had me alone, he yelled at me and said..."were you trying to cause an international incident?? What the f--- were you thinking??" Yes, the Captain was peeved.

6 UFO PHOTOS

On one particular day, 6 aerial photographs came in and the 6 photos were part of a bigger picture. Each photo represented film footage of a possible UFO, captured by either our reconnaissance aircraft or satellites. The 6 photos that came in showed different types of UFOs. Disc shape, cigar shape, globe shape, ball lightning shape, triangle shape, boomerang shape. On the back of the photos, it simply read: "Intelligent Movement". My job was to give it a secured number for classification and pass the photos to the DIA (Defense Intelligence Agency). From the DIA, the photos then went to the CIA and after that, I heard no more about the photos.

HOT ROLLS

How we obtained the aerial film footage is by driving a black sedan to Osan AFB. A placard was placed on the dash board, that basically says..."Do not stop this vehicle for any reason, let it proceed to its destination". The driver would break the speed limit to get to Osan AFB. We were in Osan to pick up "hot rolls". Hot rolls were reconnaissance aerial footage on reels. To open up the trunk of the car, the driver had 1/2 half of the combination code and I had the other half. The trunk opens and we take out a black suitcase. On the suitcase is a combination lock. Again, I have 1/2 of the combination and the driver has the other half. The suitcase opens and we place the hot rolls into the suitcase, close it, lock it and place it in the trunk of the vehicle and head back to Yongson Barracks.

ANGEL STOPS

I was intrigued by the photos and I was discussing the photos with someone with a high rank. We discussed on how Project Bluebook was shut down and that the UFO phenomena is explainable as something natural and not supernatural. The "higher up" asked if I knew what "angel stops" were. I told him "no". He explained to me that on February 20, 1954, then President Dwight D. Eisenhower was on a golf vacation in Palm Springs, Ca. During this vacation, Eisenhower was secreted away to Edwards AFB. Eisenhower had a meeting with two Nordics who were willing to make a deal with Eisenhower. The Nordics would give him knowledge on their technology, if Eisenhower would stop making nuclear weapons. Eisenhower refused this deal. Later in 1954, Eisenhower met with the "Greys". The Greys offered him a deal, their technology if they could do "angel stops", abduct humans and cattle for their experiments. Eisenhower agreed and a deal was made. My "higher up" friend, didn't know how much technology we received, but said that the military was monitoring "angel stops" and the Greys were over exceeding the abductions of humans. The Greys had now did over one million "angel stops" and some of those humans were not returned. The Greys were determined evil by our military and there were secret skirmishes with our military going up against the Greys. My "higher up" friend learned this information by a military person that was "higher up" than he. When I first heard the story, I thought my "higher up" friend was just making up the story, but I learned along the way, that this is a story that may have some kind of foundation of truth.

AFTER THOUGHTS

I always wondered if those 6 UFO photos were taken to Operation Tango for storage. Operation Tango is an underground dwelling inside a mountain in South Korea. Military Intelligence personnel and elite forces personnel were whisked away one night to Operation Tango. We were taken by bus with blacked out windows. Inside this mountain called Operation Tango were computers and listening devices. Operation Tango is a listening post of North Korea and Red China. There were many secretive areas of Operation Tango and I wondered if those 6 UFO photos could be filed away somewhere in this mountain? There was one more photo of interest. One day, a photo came in of a possible UFO soldier in Vietnam. He was being escorted by two Vietnamese armed soldiers. Was this possibly an American POW in Vietnam, the year being 1981? On the back of the photo was: "POW?"

Sacramento Paranormal Haunted Hotline: 916 203 7503

Let's look at my weekend. It's Friday night - June 15, 2007 and right after work, I am picking up Jennifer Baca, fellow HPI paranormal investigator. We are headed over to Starbucks on Greenback and Hazel to team up with HPI Core Group B that consists of lead paranormal investigator John Wachter aka Vlawde, Michelle Paykel and newcomer Chris Grissom. Before I go on, I want to thank Starbucks for providing us with free pastries, I LOVE Starbucks! After a briefing about the confidential residence from lead investigator Vlawde, we all convoy over to the haunted home in Orangevale where the Female Occupant's brother was working on sheet rock in the TV room and saw a ghostly German Shepherd walk across the room and jump out the window. The female occupant talked with her neighbors and the ghostly dog's name is Bogey. When Bogey makes his appearances he has upright ears like a German Shepherd, legs and no feet. Male occupant has seen the ghostly dog up to 20 times, he says that the dog is mostly seen in the daylight. The occupants have 4 dogs and 4 cats and sometimes Bogey hangs out by the doghouses or acts like he is part of the family's dog pack. The 4 dogs she owns are 3 Rottweilers and 1 Border Collie. One Rottweiler named Chardon appears to be a sensitive and can sense the presence of Bogey, while the other dogs don't seem to be tuned into the paranormal according to the female occupant.

Before I head over to this residence, to get me into the mood, I didn't play any paranormal themed songs, instead I threw on 'Who Let the Dogs Out by Baha Men and Atomic Dog by George Clinton'. Hey...why not? Sometimes the ghost hunts take a lot out of me, because after the investigation things are still fresh in my mind and I have to get it written out. I should be getting ready for Saturday, since I have been invited to Holly Nicola's swimming party and I also have a guest coming over to visit from Natomas afterwards. I need to clean my house, before my guest arrives, but no, who has time for that, when I have an investigation to take care of? It all comes down to my curiosity. I want to know if ghosts really exist. I almost feel like the actor John Cusack in the upcoming Stephen King movie 1408, where he has some doubts about the paranormal, until he stays in a very haunted room. That room is Room 1408 of a hotel and all kinds of horrifying things happen to him.

But what is with this Bogey? Do animal spirits really exist too? Of course they do. All living things have an energy aura, so I would say that animals spirits are not something to fancifully dismiss. I have heard about many animal spirits while in Germany, Switzerland and Austria. I even heard about some villagers in Switzerland that claimed to have seen a mythical half man/half horse spirit known as a Centaur. How can that be, when that animal was a mere myth? Perhaps in the time of Mu, Atlantis and Lemuria, these great civilizations with a high degree of ancient intelligence, that was given to them by ancient astronauts practiced DNA manipulation, perhaps they created the Centaur. For what purpose? Perhaps the purpose of having an army of half men/half horse that can travel quickly and use choice weapons to defeat the enemy. DNA manipulation is again becoming a reality. The Science Channel recently had a program that discussed on how scientists are confident that they can make a soldier 10 feet tall, all muscle and quite agile. They could even make the soldier's skin green like the Incredible Hulk. So, I think, if villagers truly saw the spirit of a Centaur, then perhaps this was a creation from a civilization that was once on Earth, a civilization of a high caliber of intelligence and perhaps somehow they destroyed themselves with their technology and here we are again, trying to catch up to this ancient civilization.

But enough about spirits of mythical creatures, let's talk about the haunting investigation that is happening this night. The home is about 55 years old. It's built next to Cripple Creek. When I snapped a few pictures of the creek, I had orbs on some of the photos. Bogey is rumored to lay in a coffin somewhere in the backyard, but I think there is another entity in the house. ago)

Male occupant claims that sometimes his tools are moved around, sometimes they even disappear. The tools are moved around in the garage and in a room called the Cat Room. At times there is a sweet smell of flowery perfume that emanates throughout the rooms. One of their neighbors lives in a home, that has music sometimes coming out of their attic, or they may hear a child crying and when they investigate, there is nothing there. The house that we are investigating, the male occupant says that his bolts were moved into a neat pile and this was done on its own. Once the occupants saw a face in the kitchen window. They also smell sweet smells, the smells are always different. I asked was the face in the kitchen window female or male and they were unsure what the gender was. Female Occupant thinks she may be a sensitive and that she may be attracting these spirits. She was once involved in seances and used to accurately predict events before they happened. She even tried out the Ouija Board and after having a bad experience, she never played it again. Female occupant is quite fascinating, she was telling me that she knew a priest that performed the actual exorcism on the little boy, that inspired the character Father Damien Karras of the movie The Exorcist (by William Peter Blatty) starring Linda Blair. The real exorcism happened on a little boy, but they changed it where it happened to a little girl and that little girl was Linda Blair.

It appears the Female Occupant has lead an interesting life that gravitated towards the paranormal. And now I can only wonder if the digital recorders that were placed around the home, would pick up any EVPs? Would we hear the ghostly dog say "woof"? As the investigators checked for EVPs and used their digital cameras and video cameras throughout the house and near Cripple Creek, I went ahead and talked with the male occupant. He told me of other paranormal events of his life. He said that once he stayed at a Best Western motel in Room 213. The bed started vibrating, and not from a coin operated machine. The next morning when he talked with some of the motel staff, they seemed to know that Room 213 was haunted. He says that his first home in North Highlands, his young daughter was aware of a ghost in the house and nicknamed the ghost "Ghostie". When he moved into the Antelope area, the ghost or ghosts followed him. So, I wondered, could it be that the female occupant was attracted to the male occupant, because they are both 'sensitives' or perhaps energy of their own auras beckon ghostly entities of the spirit world? I now look forward to our findings, to see if we captured some EVPs and take our time to analyze our digital photographs of various orbs. It is rumored that the homes are built over land occupied by early Indian settlers. This is quite possible, because when I lived in Monterey, CA, my father built a rock wall around the home and we kept on digging up Indian arrowheads, we even dug up the full skeleton of a cow that was still wearing its cow bell. So, anything is possible, perhaps the Indians liked this location because it was close to the creek that provided them with fish. There is so much to investigate in this one home that is supposedly haunted with so little time. Too bad we don't have the government backing that a paranormal investigation team like the O.S.I.R.

(Office of Scientific Investigations and Research) gets. Just think, the O.S.I.R. has been around since the 40s! But, who knows...maybe one day. For right now, I can only hope that we will find solid definite proof that there is an afterlife. But, if we don't...I still have my paranormal themed movies to watch and after this article, I am going to kick back with a glass of red wine and watch Blood & Chocolate (vampire movie based in Romania), Nicholas Cage in Marvel's Ghost Rider and finally Primeval which is inspired by a true story about a legendary 25 foot man eating crocodile! Ahhhh...my kind of movies!

Hi Paul!

I am in the early stages of developing a special for Discovery plus about Krampus and I found something online where you are detailing a family's paranormal experience with it. I was wondering if you are able to jump on a call with me at some point. I'd love to ask you about this! Let me know. I look forward to hearing from you.

UPDATE ON THE AMY MILLER CASE:

1/13/2022: Received a message from Amy Miller on Facebook and she says the activity in her home started up again, she is hearing voices, etc. When HPI did an investigation at Amy's house, we did a Roman Catholic house blessing and gave Amy a full submersion baptism. Everything was okay for a while, then Amy contacted me and said things started back up again. I notified Spiritual Battles Team (you can see their report on the first page of this book) and the shaman on the team cleared the home. Everything was a success, then today I received a message from Amy saying that the activity has started up again and she is requesting Ghost Adventures come to her home. I wish her the best of luck. God bless.

INITIAL REPORT:

Date to be there: 1/15/2022. Time to be there: 6pm. Address to be at: Stockton, CA.

Activity: Demonic. Case # 2B09M587J23T66.

WHO INVITED HPI:

Lingering Souls Paranormal. Present at this investigation were: Cherie Pruitt; Richard Pruitt; MyKensie Klein. Not present from Lingering Souls Paranormal: Kyle Pruitt; Eddie Mills; Trevor Doyle and Paul Tashiro who is also with Santa Cruz Ghost Hunters. Tonight from HPI, Deanna Jaxine Stinson aka Wish did a walk through and pointed out what she felt. Wish definitely felt negative forces and something demonic lingering at this home. Also present was Ryan Privee. Ryan was already set up with all of his equipment and was already picking up activity via his ghost hunting equipment. My job tonight was to conduct a Roman Catholic house blessing. Living in this home are a husband and wife and their son. The woman of the house wanted me to give her husband and son a full submersion baptism, because she felt her husband and son have attachments. Asking her husband if he would like to have a full submersion baptism, he did not want it this night and promised me that he would go to his local church and get baptized, along with his son. The wife wanted me to baptize them both, but my hands are tied, I cannot force someone to get baptized if they do not want it. I went ahead and conducted the Roman Catholic house blessing and hope that I was successful in clearing out the entities. Sidenote: If the husband and son truly do have an attachment, it will cause issues with my house blessing, because the entities are still attached to them. I can only do my best in this type of situation. Lingering Souls Paranormal will continue their investigation after my house blessing to see if the entities left or if they stuck around.

The husband told me that he felt there was a demonic attachment to a parked car on the side of his house, so I also blessed the car. The house was built in the 1940s. When Wish did her walk through, she picked up on a little boy. She felt a dark energy underneath the house that comes up from the floor vent. When Wish was walking into one of the bedrooms, she heard whispers. Wish also saw a shadowy figure after she heard the whispers. Wish said that the bathroom is like a miniature Santa Cruz Mystery Spot, as things appeared lopsided in the bathroom. Ryan checked it out and felt the same thing with the bathroom. I don't know if that adds anything to the activity that happens in this house, but it should be noted. Wish and Ryan felt a male presence in one of the bedrooms.

Wish envisioned "spiders" in two locations of the house. Note: Wish did not actually see the spiders, but she envisioned them as protectors of the household. The spiritual meaning of spiders in various cultures around the world, spiders are seen as a sign of good luck. Especially the image of a spider dangling from its web is seen as a symbol of luck and joy coming down from heaven. In addition to luck, spiders are a symbol for happiness, creativity and wealth in many cultures around the world. So with the negativity in this house, there seems to be something that is trying to protect this family and it may have been brought on by the woman of the house who truly wants positivity in her home.

I want to personally thank Lingering Souls Paranormal for inviting HPI to this home. Lingering Souls Paranormal will let me know if the activity still continues after I did my blessing. Ryan stayed on for the investigation and will also keep me informed.
